

Stations forced by Sinclair Broadcasting to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a dangerous act of media consolidation and anti democratic. Large companies should not control the air waves with propaganda. Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. If it forces its stations to air Stolen Honor it should also show equally Going Upriver.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license renewal process needs to involve more than a returned postcard. Thank you.
